Maman Ibrahim Ousmane

Program Development Specialist

Maman is a former USAID Program Development Advisor and international development professional with more than 16+ consecutive years working experience in designing, implementing and managing the EU, DIFD, UN and USAID funded governance, resilience, countering violent extremism, education, youth empowerment and recovery programs in highly challenging working environments of the Sahel Region

mousmane@wice.org

Linkedin

Contact

16 Years of experience

Professional Bio:

Maman's experiences include substantive leadership in programs design and awards management, assessment, monitoring and evaluation frameworks,

Skills & Expertise:

Program/Project Management; Localization / Capacity Strengthening; Stakeholder Engagement; Conflict & Stabilization; Policy Development; Grants Management; Strategic Planning

partnership building as well as resource mobilization. His areas of expertise cover civil society and community leader's capacity building strengthening, gender and children's rights, education, policy reforms, rule of law, electoral assistance programming, decentralization and local governance.

Sectors of Work:

International Development; Diplomacy & Foreign Affairs; National Security / Defense; Democracy & Governance; Human Rights; Emergency Relief

Languages Spoken:

English, French, Hausa, Arabic

JOIN US

contact@wice.org.

WICE